IN LOVING MEMORY

DAVID ALDEN HARLINE

October 9, 1942 – October 12, 2026

David Alden Harline

Born: October 9, 1942 ~ Logan, Utah
Died: October 12, 2026 ~ West Valley City, Utah

Son of Alden Kay Harline
and Lola Crookston Harline

Husband of Mary Jean Jacobs Harline

FUNERAL SERVICES

Saturday, October 24, 2026
Harvestland Ward
2976 West Winchester Drive
West Valley City, Utah 84119

PALLBEARERS

Glen Harline
Norman Hyre
Aaron Clark
James Clark
Owen Harline
Alden Clark
Mason Clark
Taylor Harline

HONORARY PALLBEARERS

James Harline
Dee Goudy
Mitchell Harline
Ken Christopher

SERVICES

Bishop Cecil Thomas, Presiding & Conducting

Prelude Music	Linda Chatelain
Family Prayer	Dee Goudy (son-in-law)
Opening Song	"O My Father," Hymn 292
Pianist	Anna Clark (granddaughter)
Chorister	Michelle Harline (daughter-in-law)
Invocation	Brenda Hyre (daughter)
Obituary	Shelby Goudy (granddaughter)
Speaker	Julie Clark (daughter)
Speaker	James Harline (son)
Speaker	Jeannette Goudy (daughter)
Musical Number	"Welcome Home," by Children and Grandchildren
Speaker	Bishop Nate Waldrop
Remarks	Bishop Cecil Thomas
Closing Song	"I Believe in Christ," Hymn 134
Closing Prayer	Glen Harline (son)
Postlude Music	Linda Chatelain

INTERMENT

Memorial Redwood, 6500 South Redwood Road, West Jordan, Utah 84084

DEDICATION OF THE GRAVE

Glen Harline (son)

David Alden Harline & Mary Jean Jacobs Harline Family

Married December 16, 1966

Glen & Stacy Harline
Olivia, Mitchell & Owen

Jeannette & Dee Goudy
Shelby

Brenda & Norman Hyre
Breanna & Kaitlyn

Julie & Aaron Clark
James, Anna, Alden & Mason

James & Michelle Harline
Taylor & Danielle

Welcome Home

Andrea Christensen Brett, Hymn 1027

The gates of heaven blaze with light.
The Savior beckons in robes of white—
Arms outstretched, His table spread.
Come to His feast; with love, be fed.

As weary trav'lers on life's road,
When the world is dark and cold,
Where'er we wander, where'er we roam,
We're always welcome, welcome home!